

Calendar Item

December 18, 2007

Contact: Shelly Terranova

sterranova@jlbalt.org

410.435.5521 phone

CALENDAR ITEM

Junior League of Baltimore to Hold “Better Dressed Sale”

Back by popular demand, The Wise Penny’s annual sale provides second chance for high end clothing

WHAT: Better Dressed Sale

Looking for that one-of-a-kind prom dress? Have a wedding coming up and nothing to wear? Just looking for a great outfit at a great bargain? Look no further! The Junior League of Baltimore will be holding its Annual Better Dressed Sale on April 5, 2008 at the Wise Penny on York Road in Baltimore, across from the Senator Theater. From 10:00am to 5:00pm, a huge stock of new and gently-used designer dresses, suits, and other semi-formal and formal wear for women, men and children will be on sale at deep discounts! Brides- we just may have the wedding dress of your dreams for a price that won't bust your budget! Be on the lookout for great accessories, purses, and shoes, too!

WHO: THE JUNIOR LEAGUE OF BALTIMORE

www.jlbalt.org

The Junior League of Baltimore (JLB) is a not-for-profit women’s organization dedicated to educating and preparing women and children in our area for a lifetime of self-sufficiency and self-esteem. The JLB, made up of more than 300 members from a variety of races, religions and national origins, are accomplished collaborators who build coalitions, identify community needs, and develop responsive programs to meet those needs. Current community programs include Youth Literacy, Children’s Art Enrichment, Women’s Mentoring, and the Hampden Health Fair. The Association of Junior Leagues International (AJLI) is one of the world’s largest women’s volunteer organizations with more than 170,000 members.

WHEN: Saturday, April 5 from 10 am to 5 pm

WHERE: The Wise Penny
5851 York Road, across from the Senator Theatre

ADMISSION: FREE!! All proceeds benefit the community-based initiatives of the Junior League of Baltimore.